

Experient is the new currency for successful NIH events

We are the source for all your meeting management, registration, housing and exhibition production needs.

Working with Experient buys you the best minds in the meeting and event industry and partnerships with the finest companies in all regions of the country. Plus, we understand the complexities of providing outsourced service for government events. We work within the proper channels to satisfy the unique needs of the government market while always delivering exceptional event experiences.

Experient is the only company that can creatively and conveniently engineer the total event experience – one that is distinct, memorable and efficient – and drive bottom line results to meet your goals and mission. More than 1,100 organizations rely on our services to ensure the success of their events each year.

Service and Product Offerings that pay off

Attendee Management

Using the latest, most efficient and most comprehensive tools and software, Experient will process all your attendees and keep registration for your event from being a hassle. Our housing solutions range from traditional reservation methods to a totally integrated Web-based reservation and database management system. You are given 24/7 access to the registration and housing process and results through your dedicated Experient account manager and the Experient real-time reporting system built on our innovative, proprietary EventXL™ software platform.

Event Logistics

Organized, creative and attentive to every last detail, Experient will help you create a custom plan that accommodates you and your participants' every need, from site selection through the post-conference report. Our connections in the industry—with all major hotel chains, convention centers, audio/visual and transportation vendors, professional speakers, photography, security and equipment rental companies, and many others—are unmatched. We will provide you with the tools to develop excellent RFPs and beneficial contracts to ensure your event is an excellent production for you and your attendees—all within your budget.

Exhibition Services

The expert staff at Experient has organized and produced thousands of tradeshow events. Beginning with contract negotiation services, Experient can manage every aspect of your tradeshow, saving you money and making your attendees happy. Experient's award-winning marketing services will help you with exhibitor and attendee attraction, as well as show promotion and sponsorship development.

Experient will not only help you create the best event possible, we will help you and your exhibitors get the most out of it. Using lead retrieval tools in our ExpoCard™ suite of solutions, such as ExpoCard Connect™ software and ExpoCard readers—our proven Legacy series and the new Optium™ series—you can track attendees at your event and your exhibitors can use the leads they've gathered to generate revenue.
